MOTHERS' MARCH THIS SUNDAY

The Mothers' March of Dimes will take place Sunday afternoon in the Chugiak Area.

Mothers throughout the community will go from house to house to collect funds for the March of Dimes.

Because of the hazardous road condition in and around the Chugiak area, the local Mothers' March will take place during the hours of 1pm to 4pm, rather than in the evening as they are in Anchorage.

Everyone is urged to cooperate with these ladies when they call.

POTATO TRUCK OVERTURNS

A combination of high winds and an icy road caused a truckload of potatoes to overturn at mile 22 last Thursday.

Noel Woods, of Palmer, said that he had been enroute to Anchorage with his load when the wind made it impossible to keep the truck on the icy road.

The truck was blown sideways into the ditch, where the rear wheels broke through a crust of ice, flipping the truck over on (cont page 2 col 2)

INAUGURAL COMMENTS

When listening to the account of the recent inauguration of President Kennedy, we were impressed that as much attention was given to the clothes that Mrs. Kennedy was wearing as was to the activities of her illustrious husband.

Apparantly the novelty of having a glamour girl for our First Lady is going to pre-vide fashion writers with material for the next four years.

One item that brrught forth much comment, was that Mrs.
Kennedy was the only woman member of the inaugural party to wear a cloth coat. That was indeed a dark day for the furriers of America. If our First Lady is to point the way for current fashion trends, only a dog will date to be seen wearing a fur coat now.

All of this in a light vein merely points out that our new, youthful first family is now installed in the White House, and all of their activities have become the property of the American public.

1 col 2)

The cause of the black out was not determined, except that it appeared to originate somewhere on the Ft. Richardson by-pass.

Master breakers at the Hydroplant were kicked out and were not thrown back into service until the lines had been checked.

to its back, demolishing the cab and bed and dumping the load.

Woods, who was able to crawl out through the window, was uninjured.

With the exception of the engine and some other parts, he estimated the truck as a total loss. However, he was avle to salvage about 90% of the 6½ tons of potatoes, leaving behind only a small amount of "mashed potatoes."

ICE CAUSES NUMEROUS ACCIDENTS.

A number of accidents in the community have been the result of the icy surfaces that surround all the homes in Chugiak this week.

Two and a half year old Scott Stewart of Eagle River fell in front of his home cutting his forehede severely. The child was rushed to the office of Dr. Marshall Simpson where seven stitches were taken.

Another victim of ice was Sandra Steeby, who also slipped on the ice and suffered a broken arm. Sandra had just recently made the High School swimming team, making the accident doubly unfortunate.

SUPPORT THE MARCH OF DIMES

CALL: HO-2-5422 or HO-2-5291 for

An open letter to Fireman David Pippel from C.E. Le Douz Jr. Pres. Chugiak Vol.
Fire Co.

"...Dave, you asked me what I thought of your letter to the ditor, Jan. 11 issue. Will I am now ready to give you your answer, publicly.

Seems funny I would have to tell you, of all people about the VOLUNTEER FIREMAN. First of all, I detected a sour note in the paragraph where you state "we do not profess to be traffic diretdtors, attend any accidents, or carry injured citizens to hospitals. We do not use sirens on automobiles, lights or other obvious attire." What you are actually are saying is you don't profess to be firemen.

The Chugiak VOLUNTEER fire does do all of these things and more not mentioned and you who profess to be a paid up member of the Chugiak Vol Fire Co. should know very well. The By-Laws of our organization read that we are formed to preserve and protect life and property as well as the extinguishment of fires.

Secondly, if you remember any of your apprentice training, you should have remembered PROTECTION OF LIFE, HUMAN OR ANIMAL, always receives the FIRST consideration of ALL fireman. The first fireman at the scene of a mishap always surveys the situation to determine if there is or shall be any danger and this extends to human or animal and either convey those concerned to a place of safety, or make the situation as safe as possible. The Chugiak Vol. Firemen who went out and sanded the icy Eagle River hill were following this principal. They figured that a few hours of their time spent voluntarily, might save the lives of some local family returning home. Their time lost can be made up, but someone's life lost can never be recovered.

The Chugiak Vol. Fire Co. doesn't set boundaries to best serve the people. We set our boundaries because we were required to do so by State Law. We therefore set them as large as possible to cover as much as possible with all we have at our command. Our boys would gladly tackle the gate of Hell with the obsolete equipment we have patched up & made usable, if we thought that a life might be saved.

This talk of a school at Eagle River and how wonderful it is to have a Fire Dept also. The community of Chugiak has always had a school and the children of Eagle River have always attended it. It has had serious water problems, fire hazard problems, safety problems, unsafe transportation problems and only a few people were concerned with the welfare of the children. Is the Eagle River Improvement Assoc. saying that the lives of the children of other parts of Chugiak are less important than the lives of the Eagle River Children? Are the people who have so conveniently stayed in their shell before the Eagle River school is build going to come out and "take care of only their own?" Are they going to spread their feathers and crow and take all
