Chugiak Well
 Represented
 At Borough
 Study

ANCHORAGE: Chugiak was very well represented at a meeting for the study of the formation of boroughs held last Saturday at the Sidney Laurence Auditorium in Anchorage. This meeting, which was sponsored by the Spenard Public Utility District, was for the purpose of determining what action should be taken toward the formation of organized boroughs in this area.

EMERGENCY MEETING OF PLAYERS CALLED

EAGLE RIVER: Billie Moore, President of the Chugiak Players stated that a situation has arisen which necessitates an emergency meeting of the Charter Members of that group before any further work on the proposed play "Home Sweet Homicide" can progress.

The meeting will take place at the Moore home on Eagle River Road on Thursday, January 12th at 7:30pm.

Mrs. Moore stated that this applies only to Charter members of the Players, and the cast members of Home Sweet Homicide are not required to attend.

CAPITAL PETITION DOES WELL IN CHUGIAK

CHUGIAK: The petition to move the Capital of the State of Alaska from Juneau to a more centrally located part of the State was well received here in Chugiak according to George Allen, chairman for the Democratic Party in this area.

Allen circulated a copy of this petition in the community last weekend and had no trouble in getting sixty signatures.

This in addition to the 119 signatures which Allen had gotten on an earlier copy of the petition last month,

EAGLE RIVER: Five school children were bitten by one of the many dogs which habitually frequent the Eagle River School grounds last Monday.

Eagle River Principal Ed Ryan reported that this particular dog had bitten one child at the noon recess; and a short time later, when one of the teachers took a group of youngsters out for afternoon recess this same dog attacked and bit four more youngsters before she was able to get the group back inside the building.

According to the teacher, the dog was snarling, and did not appear to have been playful.

In two cases the teeth of the dog had penetrated the child's clothing and blood was drawn. These two youngsters were taken to the office of Dr. Marshall Simpson for tetanus shots.

Principal Ryan reported the matter to the State Police who contacted the owner of the dog.

The dog's owner regretted the incident and agreed to keep the animal confined until it could be determined if the dog might be rabid.

Ryan has long deplored the number of dogs which hang around the Eagle River School. He stated that there are usually from fifteen to twenty dogs on the premises at all times. In almost every instance the dog is a pet who has followed some child to school.

MOOSE TOLL HIGH ON RAILROAD

ANCHORAGE: Accidental killing of moose along the tracks of the Alaska Railroad has been unusually high this winter.

According to Mr. Frank, chief dispatcher for the railroad at least eighty of the animals have been killed by trains in the month of December alone, with the total climbing in January.

Frank said that attempts to keep the moose off the tracks have been made by putting an auxiliary blade on the train snow plows and clearing a shoulder along the tracks for the moose, who are attempting to escape the deep crusted snow. This has helped some, but the animals will still get on the tracks and refuse to get off. Even when the engineer is able to stop the train in time to keep from hitting the moose, the animals will charge the locomotives and usually injure themselves that way.

CHUGIAK CHICKEN

A familiar sight to motorists along the Glenn Highway every morning is the many groups of small children waiting to be picked up by the school bus.

At some of the points extremely large numbers of children congregate sometimes twenty or more.

It has been brought to our attention that at least at one of these stops the children are amusing themselves with a very dangerous game. It is the local version of the game "chicken".

The rules for the game here seem to be that when a car is approaching the children will take turns dashing across the road in front of the car, the main idea being to see how close they allow the car to come before they run out.

One motorist noticed this group of children playing and scuffling alongside the road and blew his horn to warn them, thereupon a small boy ran out in front of his car and across the road. He blew his horn a second time and another child followed in the path of the first one. Then to really complicate matters one of the many dogs who also seem to a permanent fixture of every bus stop dashed out into the road and stayed there. The driver of the car attempted to miss the dog and his car skidded on the icy road and he came very near plowing into the group of children.

Needless to say this person was very shaken by this experience, and is wondering what can be done about this situation.

Unfortunately the school authorities have no jurisdiction over children before they board the school bus, at this point their behavior is the responsibility of their parents. (next col.)

(editorial)

But in cases like this the parents usually are unaware of the behavior of the children as in most instances the child lives some distance from the point where he boards the bus.

The seriousness of this matter is obvious to everyone, the problem is what to do about it.

We sincerely hope and pray that we never have to print a report of some small chicken who did not make it across the road "to see what is on the other side."

COOK FOR JANUARY
LOIS ANTE

This week Lois offers a suggestion for a quick lunch or a midnight supper after an evening of bowling or some other activity.

CREAM OF TOMATO SOUP
WITH TUNA SANDWICHES

SOUP:

- 1 qt milk (powdered or evaporated milk may be used)
- 2 cups tomato juice
- 1 slice onion
- 1 tsp salt
- 4 tbs. flour
- 1/8 tsp pepper
- 4 Tbs butter

COOK Onion with tomato juice
MELT butter
ADD flour and seasoning
MIX with hot tomato juice
COOK until smooth and thick
COOL to lukewarm
ADD cold milk a little at a time, stirring constantly.
HEAT and reseason if necessary

SANDWICHES:

- 1 can tuna
- 1 chopped hardboiled egg
- 2 Tbs mayonnaise
- Salt & pepper to taste
- 1/2 cup chopped celery
- MIX and spread on buttered bread.

*Lois offers this suggestion for those who may not care for the fishy flavor of tuna. ADD a small amount of milk to the tuna and scald in a saucepan. POUR off the liquid and the fishy tasting oils will be gone, leaving meat flavored more like chicken.

NO AUTO LICENSE
SALES PLANNED HERE

ANCHORAGE: Jeff Barry, Assistant Commissioner Field Services for the Alaska Department of Revenue has said that the Department has no plans for having an agent to sell auto licenses anywhere in the Chugiak area this year.

Barry went on to say that in the past two years when a representative of his office was stationed in this community only a total of approximately 500 licenses were sold over that two year period.

Barry felt that since the majority of the residents of this area work at either of the two military bases or in Anchorage, they would be able to purchase their licenses there at no great inconvenience.

Barry did, however, make the reservation that if he could be shown sufficient evidence that a large number of Chugiak residents desired to have a representative in that community that he might be able to send someone out on a pre-arranged date, probably

It was suggested that persons wishing to have this service made available to them call the KNIK ARM COURIER at HO-2-5275, and the information would be relayed to Mr. Barry.

FIRST MOOSE SEEN IS A CLOSE ONE

PETERS CREEK: When George Ante of Mt. Eklutna Drive in Peters Creek was driving home with several house guests in his car, he observed to a young girl that is she would look carefully there was a good chance that she might see a moose.

Seconds later, the moose appeared, right in the middle of the road, and Ante was unable to avoid hitting the animal, a young calf.

Damage to Ante's jeep station wagon was negligible, the moose suffered a broken leg and had to be shot.

INTERNATIONAL BEARD
GROWING CONTEST PLANNED

CORDOVA: What is believed to be the first International Beard Growing Contest is currently being staged in Cordova, Alaska, in conjunction with the second annual Cordova Iceworm Festival.

Since legend has it that the Cordova Iceworm has roamed everywhere it was decided to invite everyone anywhere to enter the contest, whether or not they can attend the Festival.

The only qualification is that entrants drop a postcard to the Iceworm Beard Contest, Cordova, Alaska, announcing their intention to enter the competition, then submit a photo prior to the Festival, February 10th-11th.

Prizes will be awarded (whether the contestant is present or not) for the beard from the Highest Altitude; the Beard Closest to the Equator, North Pole, and South Pole; and the Grand Champion Bearded King of Iceworms!

Tell it to Martha!

By MARTHA COUNCIL

Dear Martha,

I have been terribly hurt. We have only been married a few months; the other evening my husband was quite late in coming home to dinner.

He had run into an old buddy of his and they had stopped for a few beers, and then he brought his friend home to dinner.

Well Martha, I had only fixed dinner for the two of us. Since I had bought only two pork chops there was no way I could stretch it to feed another person. So I told them I had got tired of waiting and had already eaten and fed them what I had. Then they sat around until midnight just visiting. By the time this man left, I was almost fainting with hunger, and went into the kitchen and fixed myself a peanut butter sandwich. My husband came in and asked my why I was eating at that hour, and I explained to him. He then got angry at me for having lied to him and made a big scene. I went to bed in tears.

Tell me Martha, what should I have done? I think he was terribly unfair (next col)

It was his fault for bringing his friend home wasn't it?

Lucy P.

Dear Lucy P,

Your husband felt guilty at having caused you to miss your dinner, and was not mature enough to admit that he himself was at fault. You did the best you could under the circumstances.

In the future, however, I suggest that you ask him that when he brings home an unexpected guest, to stop at the store and pick up some additional food.

Don't count on his remembering to do this, however. Nowadays the smart housewife keeps a few frozen TV dinners on hand for such emergencies.

I think you deserve an apology from your husband, but don't hold your breath until you get it.

Sincerely,
Martha Council

KEEL LAID FOR SECOND FERRY

SEATTLE: The keel for Alaska's second big ferry was laid last Friday at the Puget Sound Bridge and Drydock Company in Seattle --almost a month ahead of schedule.

B.E. (Lew) Lewellen, Director of the Alaska Division of Marine Transportation, said he received word of the early keel-laying from Philip A. Spaulding, Seattle marine architect who designed the ferries. Lewellen said the new date doesn't necessarily mean that the second vessel will be completed ahead of its scheduled completion date of January 1, 1963.

The director said that the State did not have any celebration planned for Friday, and said that no name has been announced for the second ship as yet.

The keel laying for the third vessel for the Southeastern ferry run is scheduled for June 7th.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

QUESTION: My regular work is not covered by the Social Security Act. But I take time off each Christmas season to buy and sell trees for profit. I've done this for several years. Could I qualify for benefits on this work?

ANSWER: If your income from Christmas tree sales--after deducting expenses connected with this business--is at least $400.00 per year, you are eligible for social security coverage. You should ask your nearest social security office about getting a card and paying taxes on your income.

STOLEN TIRE AND WHEEL RECOVERED

FIRE LAKE: The theft of a tire and wheel was reported to local State troopers by Danny Jensen proprietor of Fire Lake Service last Saturday.

The wheel had been taken from a car which had been left at the station for repairs.

When the owner of the car Joe Phillips of Birchwood came to pick up his vehicle the theft was discovered.

Subsequent investigation by State Troopers led to the arrest of a Birchwood man who had the missing wheel and tire in his possession.

SALE OF IVORY WITHOUT PERMIT BRINGS FINE

FAIRBANKS: Sale of raw ivory without a permit authoring the sale resulted in a fine of $500 and a 60 day jail sentence for a (next col.)

(ivory)

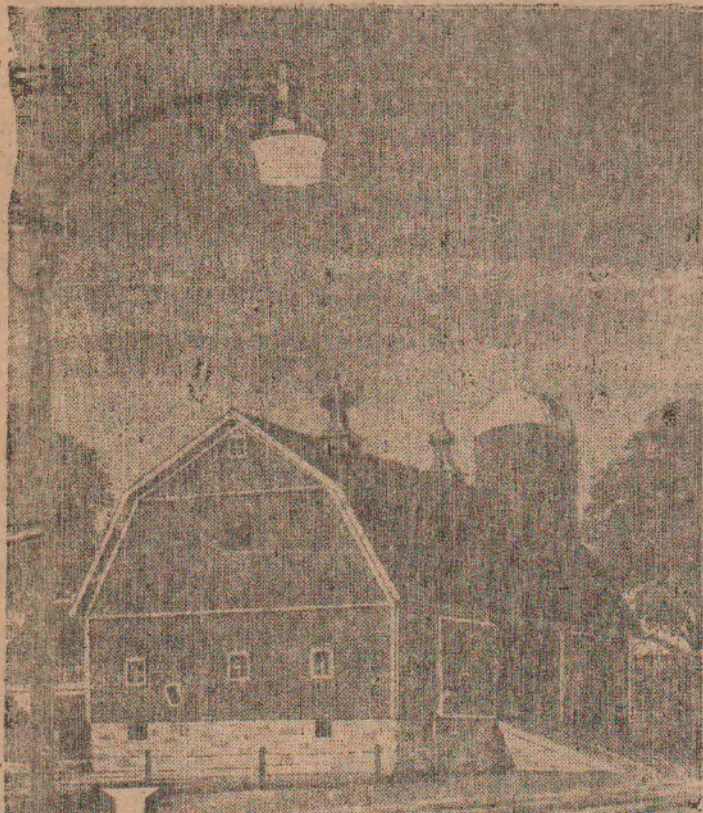

Fairbanks man on his conviction in court there. The jail sentence and part of the fine were suspended on condition of good behavior for one year. The court also ordered confiscation of the ivory involved.

The regulation prohibiting purchase or sale of raw ivory without a permit was written to remove the incentive for excessive harvest of walrus for their tusks alone.

Before this regulation was adopted by the Board of Fish and Game at it's first rule making session, large numbers of walrus tusks were sold to tourists at a fraction of the value the ivory attains when fashioned by skilled Alaskan ivory carvers.

The permit requirement not only reduced the incentive for taking far more walrus than are needed for food and carving purposes, but also assured that the ivory would fall only into the hands of carvers so that maximum value would be realized from all tusks taken.

brought the total of signatures from this community to 179.

Allen stated that for the most part Chugiakans were eager to sign the petition. The ones who declined were for the most part ones who had already signed a copy of the petition at another location.

Allen said that he found only seven persons who did not feel that this move was a desirable thing.

PARKING LOT "CUT-UPS" CAPTURED

EAGLE RIVER: Complaints from residents of Eagle River that some young people were using the parking lot of the Eagle River Shopping Center for the practice of "spinning Brodies" late at night, led to investigation by State Police.

At 1am last Saturday night several cars were observed by the local State Trooper which appeared to be indulging in this practice.

Arrests were made and charges of negligent driving were made.

SPORTS

The Chugiak Huskies put a game in the bag last week (January 3rd, 1962) with a margin of only two points (26-24) over the Eagle River Rams.

It was a grand game for both teams; it had its ups and downs.

The Cheer Leaders of both sides were really pouring it on.

The people really liked the game.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmert were there at the game. Mr. Emmert was our principal before Mr. Smith.

GLAD TO SEE YOU EMMERTS!

cussed challenging subjects suggested by members of these groups which applied to the school.

This informal spontaneous discussion was enthusiastically received, and the membership voted to continue (next col.)

groups at the next meeting, with the members to do research on the subjects which interested them the most.

A report on the Athletic Equipment Fund raising drive was made, and it was announced that each parent would be requested to purchase a share of "stock", for one dollar, or more if they desire. A certificate will be given in exchange to show that the purchaser owns a share in the future of the schools athletic program.

Another fund raising activity which is planned is a combination box social, square dance and talent contest, to be held February 10th at the Eagle River Gym.

This will be a family participation affair, and the box lunches will be auctioned off to the highest bidder.

Further details will be announced at a later date.

One of the prime needs at the present time is a combination clock and scoreboard for the Eagle River Gym.

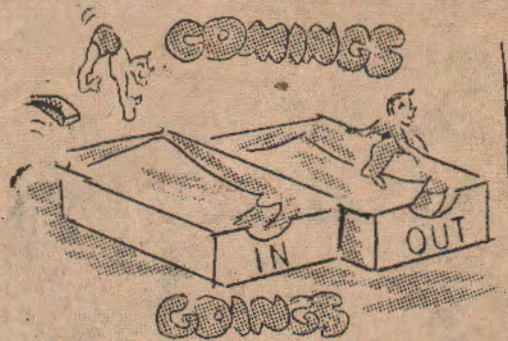

The more serious problems of the stray dogs at the Eagle River School, and behavior problems of the children at the school movies were also brought up, and Mr. Smith is taking measures to attempt to correct both matters.

Room count was won by Mrs. Towne's second grade class of the Chugiak School.

The next meeting will take place at the Eagle River School on Tuesday, February 13th.

Refreshments were served by the fifth grade mothers.

BOY SCOUTS RESUME MEETINGS

OLD CHUGIAK: Boy Scout Troop # six has resumed their weekly meetings, after a holiday vacation.

The troop meets every Tuesday evening at the Chugiak Methodist Church.

POST OFFICE OFFICIALS ASKED TO INVESTIGATE FALSE ADS

JUNEAU: Governor William A. Egan said today that he has asked Post Office Department Officials to investigate the activities of an Eastern promoter whose advertisements in various national publications have misrepresented employment opportunities in Alaska.

The Governor said the request, latest in a series of moves aimed at halting the erroneous statement, followed reports which indicate the promoter has switched his base of operations from Newark New Jersey to New York.

Indications of the sift were contained in three advertisements now appearing in January and February issues of various national publications. Content and format of the advertisements, as well as the name of the advertiser, Practical Research Co. are the same as in previous protested advertisements, but a return address of a post office box at the Lenox Hill Station, New York, New York, has replaced the former Newark address.

In a letter to Chief Postal Inspector Henry B. Montague, outlining steps which he has taken to terminate the company's misrepresentations, Gov. Egan said it now appears obvious that the company has no intention of abiding by assurances it had recently given to Attorney General David D. Furman of New Jersey that it (cont page 11 col 1)

PACK MEETING

OLD CHUGIAK: The monthly Pack meeting for Cub Scout Pack #6 was held last Saturday evening at the Chugiak Methodist Church and conducted by Cubmaster Bob Morrison.

Awards were given to the following boys, Dennis Morris, Lion Badge, Tom Towne, Gold Arrow n Lion Badge and Craig Ranger, two year pin.

Following this the boys played "Steal the Bacon".

The theme for the month of January is: KNIGHTS OF YORE.

HUSKIES TAKE FIRST LOCAL BASKETBALL GAME

EAGLE RIVER: The Chugiak Huskies defeated the Eagle River Rams 26-24 in the first interscholastic Junior High Game to be held in this area last Wednesday at the Eagle River Gym.

The fast moving, exciting game brought an enthusiastic response from the spectators and gave promise of a thrilling season as this new sport is introduced to this community.

The line up of the two teams was:

HUSKIES: Guards, Jim Burroughs and Butch Phillips, Forwards, Gene Risley and Duane Darby and Center Lester Stephens.

RAMS: Guards, Sam Wintersteen and Toby Riddell, Forwards, Don Bush and Dave Heller and Center Greg Thompson.

The game was covered by sports reporters from local newspapers and radio station.

Egan said he has also written to both Attorney General Furman and to Attorney General Louis J. Lefkowitz of New York to point out the change in operations base and to solicit their cooperation in clamping down on the company.

Egan said he anticipated that the request would receive the cooperative attention of the two state officials, but (cont col 3)

He urged the postal officials to investigate and take whatever action he might feel appropriate to halt the company's "deliberate campaign of misrepresentation."
