Tell it to Martha

BY MARTHA COUNCIL

Dear Mother,

It would be in the worst possible taste!

I cannot help but agree that most children would prefer a toy to clothing, but this is not the issue.

Many mothers welcome the little blouses and such that arrive at birthday time. If you feel that any clothing that your child would receive will be so objectionable, I suggest that you advise the mothers of the children you invite that you would prefer that no gifts at all be given. To try to instruct them what gifts are acceptable is highly improper.

Sincerely,

Martha Council

Dear Martha,

I would like your advise on whether or not what I plan to do is proper.

Since we have moved here my child has been invited to several birthday parties.

From what she tells me, most of the gifts received have been clothing.

This is unheard of to me. Where we come from clothing is never given as a birthday gift from one child to another.

Surely a child would appreciate a toy so much more than something to wear.

I am planning a party for my child soon, and I would like to know how to let the other mothers know how I feel. I don't care to have someone picking out my child's clothing.

Would it be improper to write on the invitations, "No clothing please, just toys?"

REPORT ON FIRE COMPANY SUBSCRIPTION DRIVE

CHUGIAK: On Saturday, August 10th and 17th, the Eagle River Lions Club worked with the Eagle River and Chugiak Fire Companies in a door to door campaign soliciting support for the two fire companies.

Response from those contacted was almost 100%.

However, according to the Lions Club, some people were not home, and there wasn't enough time to contact every one. (next col.)

(Lions)

Those who have not been contacted are instructed to leave their pledge at the General Supply Company (for the Eagle River Fire Company) or at Wallace Construction Company (for the Chugiak Fire Company).

Eagle River membership fee is $12.00 per year and Chugiak membership is $10.00 for a year.

This fee entitles a subscriber to fire protection and ambulance service for a full year.

The total pledge may be paid in advance or on the installment plan.

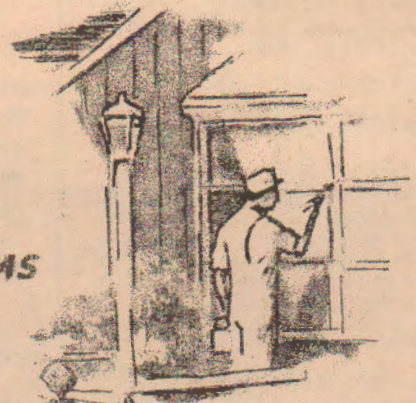

The Lions Club says "Remember! the more we support our fire companies, the less chance there'll be of being out in the cold some SUB-ZERO night. JOIN HANDS WITH YOUR LIONS CLUB, SUPPORT YOUR FIRE COMPANIES."
