POLICE STILL REPORT
NO SIGN OF MISSING YOUTH

THUNDERBIRD FALLS: State Police reported that they were still searching for a thirteen year old Anchorage youth, who disappeared after falling over a bluff at Thunderbird Falls last Saturday.

The victim is Merton Paul Curtwright, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald V. Curtwright of Anchorage. Young Curtwright and three companions had been hiking in the vicinity of the falls and were attempting to climb the bluffs above the falls, when the accident occurred.

The State Police were assisted by the Eagle River Fire Company, the Spenard Rescue Group, the Alaska Mountain Rescue Group, a group of soldiers from Ft. Richardson and some of their own number trained as skin divers.

The hills and surrounding area of Thunderbird Creek, and the Eklutna River as far as the Railroad trestle have been thoroughly searched, without any sign of the boy.

The police plan to continue the search on Wednesday on to the mouth of the Eklutna River.

The three other youths were, Ricky L. Richardson age 15, Kenneth G. Reynolds, age 17 and James R. Spanen, age 14, all of Anchorage. The father of the missing boy is employed by the Safeway Stores.

ERROR IN TAX
COMPUTATION ADVISE CORRECTED

CHUGIAK: Glenn Briggs, Borough Assemblyman from Section one has asked that a correction in the formula which he advised be used to compute tax assessments be published.

Briggs said, "It was in error to advise last week that the personal and real property evaluations shown on the assessment notices mailed out by the Anchorage Borough are real or true values.

"The valuations shown are seventy percent of the real or true value. The tax assessment for the support of borough wide schools for the six month period July 1 to December 31, 1964, is four and one half (4 1/2) mills ($4.50 per thousand) on the valuations shown on the assessment notices of the Greater Chugiak Area.

The Borough Assessor has requested that property owners who feel their valuations are inequitable or unreasonable, contact his office by letter indicating the property in question and stating briefly wherein and why their valuations should be re-considered.

"Staff members will contact the owners on the ground in the area for re-consideration of the valuation.

Owners not satisfied with adjustments made in the field may appeal to the Board of Equalization at hearings which will commence August 31",

CHUGIAK: Voting was light in the Greater Chugiak Area, with a total of 596 votes cast in all three of the local voting precincts. Voting was as follows; sled dogs and their equipment, a tour of the kennels and is climaxed by seeing a team hitched to a light sled and dragged over the bare gravel trail for a few hundred feet. For those who prefer to "Travel Alaska" the lazy way, we recommend this manner of enjoying the beauties of Mt. McKinley Park.

TRAVEL ALASKA: No. 4

THE LAZY WAY TO MCKINLEY PARK

This year we chose the lazy to visit Mt. McKinley Park. Instead of a long tiring drive over the beautiful but desolate Denali Highway, we lay back in comfort while the Alaska Railroad whisked us to our destination.

This trip permits the vacationer to view some of the most beautiful country in Alaska, visible only along the Railbelt.

The trip takes eight hours, and the train arrives at Mt. McKinley Park in time to permit one to check in at the Hotel.

Here too, we decided to take the lazy man's vacation and chose the luxury of the Hotel, rather than the campground.

Recreation at the Hotel is provided for the most part by the Park Rangers, who present wildlife movies and slide shows and conduct guided nature walks along the trails near the hotel.

For those who wish a tour of the park, the hotel provides a bus ride to the Elson Visitors Center 63 miles from the Park entrance.

These comfortable buses are piloted by well informed, courteous college youths, who point out all the interesting landmarks along the way.

On this eight hour round trip one is very likely to see moose, grizzly bear, caribou, fox, dall sheep and, if one is fortunate, even a view of "Mighty Mac" itself.

We feel we must warn one that in order to take this trip, the visitor must be prepared to be awakened at 3 a.m., as it planned so as to be back at the hotel in time to check out and catch the 1pm train back to Anchorage.

Another interesting demonstration is offered by the Park Rangers.

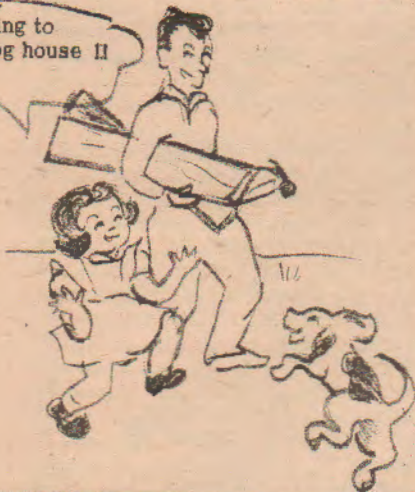

This is conducted at Park Headquarters, and includes a lecture on

ONLY FIRST AND NINTH GRADERS TO REQUIRE PHYSICALS

CHUGIAK: Only students entering the first and ninth grades will require pre-school physicals, according to Sam Hayes, Principal of the Eagle River School.

These physicals may be obtained from any Anchorage Area doctor, with the State of Alaska paying $2.50 of the cost of the physical.

Physicals are not required of students entering any grade other than the two mentioned above.

HOME TRAFFIC CAN BE PROBLEM

PALMER: Traffic within the home can be as much of a problem as noisy and as frustrating as heavy traffic on streets and highways, says Myrtle Bang, District Home Demonstration Agent.

Families planning to build or remodel can check and re-check their plans before building or remodeling and plan their traffic areas to avoid con-

If orderly routes for family movement is planned much noise and confusion can be eliminated. The kitchen is a homemakers workshop. In a corridore type kitchen, family traffic moves through the business section in tow directions. This can cause a bottleneck area for collisions and traffic jams. With a "U" shape or an "L" shaped kitchen, work area doors are placed for traffic to by-pass the work area.

This same arrangement can be a help in the dining room and living room. If traffic passes through a living room, the route should by-pass the main section. A living room with protection against traffic will add comfort and order to family living.

Well planned entrance halls can be of great help in elimination of traffic problems.

LOCAL ACCA CHAPTER TO HOLD ANNUAL MEETING

CHUGIAK: The Chugiak Chapter of the Alaska Crippled Children's Association will hold their annual meeting on Friday, August 14th, at the Chugiak Methodist Church at mile 18.

The meeting will begin at 8pm and is open to the public.

Jeanette Beatty, spokesman for the local Chapter explained the function of the group, which is to provide ACCA services for the handicapped children and adults of the Greater Chugiak Area.

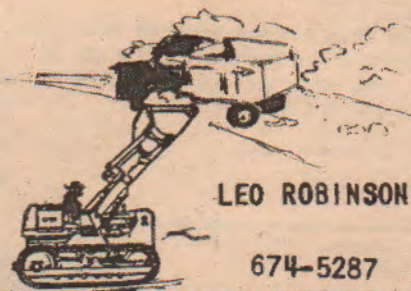

During the past year a speech and hearing therapist has been coming to the local area and giving tests and treatment to 42 local children. She has given a total of 77 individual sessions to the above children, and conducted 400 surveys among the school children of the area.

For this service, the local Chapter must raise an annual sum of $1,200.

The meeting this month is for the purpose of electing officers to the board of directors and renewing memberships.

A guest speaker and program are planned. Refreshments will be served.

TUSTUMENA ARRIVES IN ANCHORAGE

ANCHORAGE: Amid the booming of cannons, the blair of a military band the the rhythmic chanting of Eskimo dancer, the Alaska State Ferry, the Tustumena arrived in Anchorage last Friday, completing her inaugural voyage.

Among the special guests to disembark was a representative of the Knik Arm Courier, Mr. Roy J. Hicks, who had boarded the vessel at Ketchikan and made the voyage all the way to Anchorage, visiting all the ports of call on this special trip and participating in the welcome which was extended the ship and passengers at each stop.

(next col)

(Tustumena)

Mr. Hicks reported that the trip had been most enjoyable, with accommodations adequate and comfortable, the food good and the company excellent.

An interesting sidelight to the trip was the acquiring of a piano, for the ships lounge. The celebrating passengers felt the need of some "live music", and after making sure that a used piano could be purchased at the next stop, a collection was taken up among the passengers, and the piano purchased at Wrangel. The instrument will be a permanent fixture of the ships lounge, with a brass plate to be affixed which will bear the names of all those who contributed. The Knik Arm Courier was one of the contributors, and will be among those listed on the plate.

ENGINEERING POSITION ANNOUNCED

JUNEAU: The State Division of Personnel has announced an open competitive examination for Electrical Engineer for the purpose of filling a vacancy in Juneau.

The position offers a starting salary of one thousand dollars per month. Minimum qualifications include five years of experience as an electrical engineer and an engineering degree. Additional experience may be substituted for the degree.

Application forms may be obtained from the nearest office of the State Employment Service, or by writing to the Director of personnel, Box 2420, Juneau.

COMMISSIONER ROLOFF RESIGNS

JUNEAU: Commissioner of Economic Development and Planning, Henry Roloff submitted his resignation to Governor William A. Egan and the resignation was accepted.

It is to become effective on August 15.

Governor Egan announced on August 1, that the department would undergo a reorganization and be administered directly from his office.

The last session of the Legislature made substantial cuts in the department's proposed budget.

BISON PERMIT DEADLINE AUGUST 31

JUNEAU: August 31 is the deadline for filing applications for a permit to hunt bison in the Big Delta area this fall, the Department of Fish and Game announced today.

This deadline is two weeks later than the closing date which was announced last month, and will allow more hunters to apply for the permits, according to Division of Game Director James W. Brooks.

Permit application form are available at all Department offices, Brooks said. They may be obtained by mail or in person.

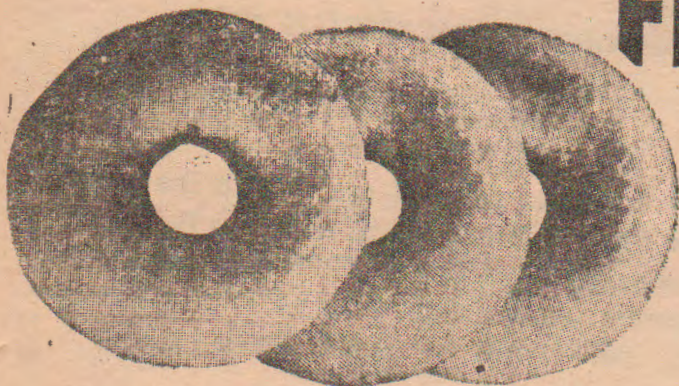

The Delta hunt is one of two to be held this fall, probably in early October. In addition to the permit hunt, there will also be a short open season in the COPPER River area, open to those hunters who pre-resister. In this area, the ruggedness and inaccessibility of the country are expected to limit the number of hunters. The season will be closed when no more than 15 mature bison have been take. Twenty mature animals may be taken in the Delta hunt.

All applicants for permits must have a 1964 Alaska hunting license, according to Regional Game Supervisor Frank Jones of Fairbanks. A drawing to select 20 lucky hunters from among the more than 2000 people expected to apply will be held in Fairbanks in early September, Jones said.

Tell it to Martha

BY: MARTHA COUNCIL

Dear Martha,

I don't know what to do about this friend of my husbands.

He is staying with us this summer while he is working, and for the most part is a good guy. He more than pays his share, and keeps his room clean and sends his laundry out.

What am I complaining about you say?

It's his filthy mouth. He uses the worst language I ever heard and tells the dirtiest stories all in front of me and the kids.

Now I'm no prude, and I don't think my ears will fall off if I hear a four letter word, but my kids are in their teens, and old enough to know what he is talking about.

I don't want to hurt his feelings, but I just have got to stop him somehow. What do you suggest?

Lily Mae

Dear Lily Mae,

Ask your husband to tell him to lay off the stories and to remind him to watch his language.

And don't worry about his feelings honey, people who talk like that usually have a hide like an

Sincerely,
Martha Council

The board will also sit as the state Board for Vocational Education and the State Board for Vocational Rehabilitation.

Board members include George E. Smith of Palmer, president; Hunt Gruening, Juneau, Vice-President; Frank X. Chapados, Fairbanks; William G. Moran, Ketchikan; Mrs. Marcella C. Buckalew, Anchorage; and Mrs. Mary M. Kelliher, Nome.

Persons desiring to present materials or appear before the board, should contact the Commissioner Of Education, Alaska Office Building, Juneau.

LAWN MANAGEMENT IMPORTANT FOR WINTER SURVIVAL

PALMER: Summer management of lawns has a lot to do with winter survival, according to Leland Cade, district Extension agent.

Many times the ailment commonly called "winter killing" is really an ailment called "summer mis-management".

Lawns should be mowed no shorter than 1.5 inches. Mowing too close removes the capacity of the plant to produce a winter food reserve which is stored in the root system. Mowing often has the same effect. Good winter survival may mean some compromise with appearance during the summer.

Lawns should be properly fed with fertilizer for good health. During mid-summer lawns should be fertilized with ammonium nitrate or its equivalent, at the rate of 5 pounds per 1,000 square feet.

Plants that aren't properly fed during the summer cannot build the necessary food reserves to survive the winter.

Information on lawn management is available in a bulletin called "Lawn Weeds" and is available at the district extension office, Cade concluded.

Summer Care of Lawn and Garden

Here it's early in August and the Sourdough Gardener has hardly had a chance to visit with you about summer care of the garden.

By now, that early application of fertilizer has been pretty well used up, or at least moved down lower than the root zone. This is a good time to side-dress your row crops so they will not be retarded from lack of fertilizer. About 1/2 cup of ammonium nitrate along the side of each ten feet of row is about right.

This would be a good time to review Publication No. 10 of the Cooperative Extension Service. As you know, we only have about 100 days of growing season, and even a few days slow-up because fertilizer is lacking could spell the difference between success and failure.

Don't forget that dry fertilizer can't be used by the plant until after it has been dissolved in water. Even though you may have mixed it into the soil, it is of no use to the plant unless there is plenty of water in the soil. Things are usually in your favor on that score from July on, as the rainy season has started. It is better not to wait even one day after putting on fertilizer, hoping it will rain. Get out the garden hose and wet the fertilized area, so that the plants can start using it at once.

A reminder on lawns is in Publication No. 10, "Fertilizer For The Home Gardener." By now, the last application of fertilizer for the lawn should be applied. If you wait much longer before putting it on, the grass will still be growing rapidly when freeze-up comes. It is better if growth has slowed down a little before that time.

This rainy, cool season has caused more trouble than usual with bottom rot on lettuce. Even cabbage and other leafy vegetables that have dense foliage low on the plant will often give trouble.

There is no real cure, but good air circulation certainly helps. Removal of some of the lowest leaves will allow the air to get to the surface of the remaining leaves and soil. In crowded rows it may be necessary to pull a few plants out entirely.

When removing leaves, always remember that they are the plant's food factory, so don't pick off any more than are necessary.

Now is the time for those of you that planted on raised rows or ridges to give a wise smile. Most everyone in Southeast Alaska has already learned this lesson and should have little trouble.

Slug and snail activity has been high this year, probably due to the earlier wet weather. There are many commercial baits now that give good control. Try these in combination with removal of bottom leaves and a general opening up around the plants, and you'll have less trouble.

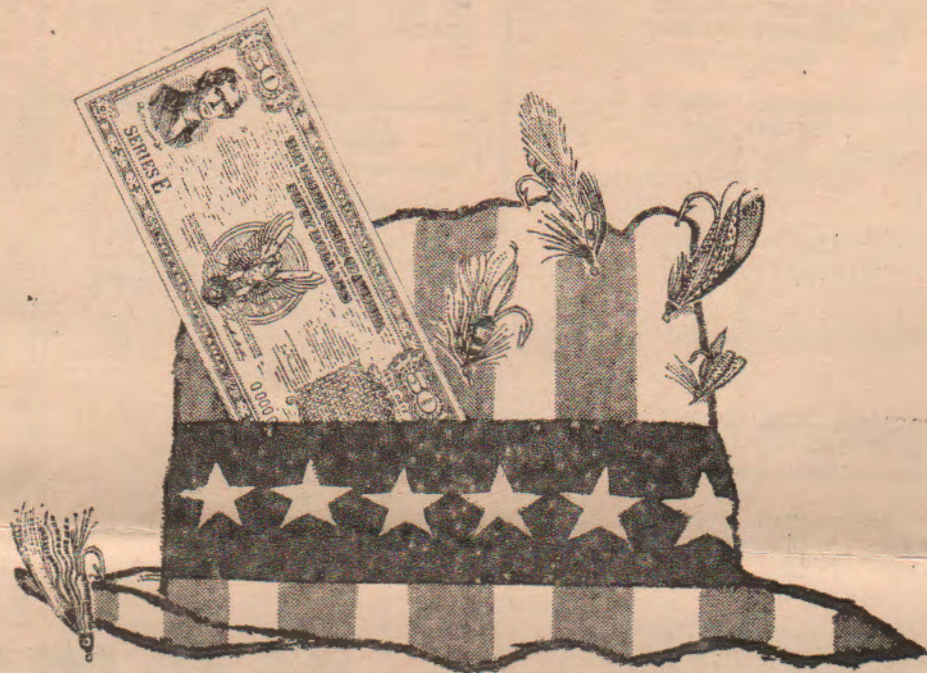

AMBULANCE HAS NEW PAINT JOB

CHUGIAK: The rescue ambulance belonging to the Chuglak Volunteer Fire Company now sports a shiny new coat of paint.

The vehicle which was formerly "Air Force" blue, is now a distinctive grey and red.

The painting was done by Fire Captain John Boyles, assisted by Chief John JKuphaldt and Mrs. Kuphaldt.

Red, white, & blue retirement plan

Sure, you'll have social security. Maybe an insurance plan, company pension and money in the bank to boot.

But buying U.S. Savings Bonds is also an excellent way to prepare for that day when you start taking it easy full time.

If you buy one a month at $37.50 for 7 3/4 years before you retire, you'll have $50.00 a month coming in for 7 3/4 years after. (That's just an example. You can adjust the dollars and the years to suit yourself.)

Something else to think about: Bonds can help make sure you'll have a future to retire to in the first place. The money does a lot to strengthen Uncle Sam's hand in the free world.

Why not make it a habit to buy Bonds regularly where you bank, or on the Payroll Savings Plan where you work? See if you don't feel pretty good about it—now and later.

Quick facts about Series E Savings Bonds

- You get back $4 for every $3 at maturity (7 3/4 years)
- You pay no state or local tax and can defer the federal tax until the Bonds are cashed
- Your Bonds are replaced free if lost, destroyed or stolen
- You can get your money when you need it
