EAGLE RIVER: The tantalizing aroma of fresh baked bread wafts over the Eagle River Shopping area each day, as the newest enterprise in the community goes into operation.

The Pegge Lee Bakery, located in the Eagle River Shopping Center next to the post office, will hold their Grand Opening this Friday and Saturday following a week of trial operation.

Owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. James Christensen, veteran Alaskan bakers, the bakery will feature a complete line of baked goods.

POST OFFICE LOBBY MAY CLOSE NIGHTS

CHUGIAK: Paul Swanson, Postmaster at the Chugiak Post Office announced that he may find it necessary to close the lobby of the Chugiak Post Office during the hours between 9pm and 9am.

Swanson gave as his reason the fact that minor acts of vandalism have been committed in the lobby during those hours in recent weeks.

The vandalism has been limited so far to the defacement of posters and bulletins posted there and to writing on the post office walls.

Swanson believes this to be the work of high school students who wait for the bus in the post office lobby.

Tell it to Martha

BY: MARTHA COUNCIL

Dear Martha,

Last fall, when all of our kids were finally in school my wife decided she didn't have enough to keep her busy at home and got herself a job.

Well the housework, the laundry and everything got in such a bad state that I told her she was going to have to start staying home and taking care of things.

Instead she made a deal with this elderly widow who lives with her daughter. The woman comes in every morning, gets the kids off to school, does the laundry, the cleaning and has supper started when my wife gets home.

I have to admit that I don't have anything to complain about as far as the way things are taken care of now, but the point is this.

By the time my wife gets through paying this woman, what she has left of her own paycheck you could stick in a bug's eye.

I say that she should be staying home and doing her own work and taking care of her own children rather than working all week to pay someone else's wages. She doesn't agree, do you?

(next col)

Pappa

Dear Pappa,

If your wife were working to supplement the family income than I would agree that she was defeating her cause by having to pay someone full-time wages to help out at home.

However, I suspect that your wife, like many women today is not as well suited to housework as she may be to some other line of work.

If your wife finds her career (whatever it may be) more rewarding than housework, than she is probably much happier with the present arrangement even if it means very little in the way of extra money.

As long as the work at home is being done properly she will without doubt be a better companion to you and the children if she is occupied at something she enjoys rather than feeling trapped in household drudgery. Perhaps in time she may become tired of going out to work every day and be glad to stay at home.

In the meantime let her continue with your blessing.

Sincerely,
Martha Council

FRUIT GROWING POSSIBLE IN ALASKA

PALMER: Some fruit production is possible in Alaska.

A bulletin on the subject has been published by the Alaska Agricultural Experiment Station called "Tree Fruits in Alaska" and is available at the Extension Service office, and Experiment Station office, in Palmer, according to Leland Cade, District Extension Agent.

The bulletin reviews the potential for tree fruit production in Alaska and describes a number of varieties that have been tested.

"Folks who would like to grow fruit should plant nothing but the most hardy of the tested varieties", Cade said.

Winter survival is a limiting factor in getting fruit plants to grow and some success has been obtained with the varieties listed.

The bulletin also provides information regarding the importation of plant stock from other states and Canada.

In the future, classified ads will be accepted on a paid in advance basis, (with the exception of those who have established accounts with the Courier.)

To facilitate in the computing the cost of each classified ad, the following table will be published weekly, for the benefit of those who find it more convenient to place their ads by mail.

Rates for each insertion are: 50¢ for the first three lines, 25¢ for each line thereafter. Payment by check, cash or money order may be mailed to Box 1166, Chugiak, or brought to the Courier office on Mt. Eklutna Drive in Peters Creek not later than 6pm on Monday.

Use the following table for ease in computing classified cost. Allow one block for each letter, punctuation or space between letters.
