

HEARING ON BURNING ORDINANCE CALLED

HAPPY BIRCHWOOD SCHOOL CHILDREN HURRY OUT AT RECESS TO ENJOY THE JAMISON RINGS AND THE BUNKER HILL CLIMBER PURCHASED FOR THEM BY THE BIRCHWOOD PTA.

ANCHORAGE: The hotly contested Garbage Burning Ordinance will be up for Public Hearing on Monday, October 14th at 8:00pm. The Hearing will take place at the Borough School Administration Building on Fireweed Lane in Anchorage.

This a completely amended Ordinance which, if passed would supersede the Burning Ordinance passed last month.

Ed Willis, Borough Assemblyman from the Greater Chugiak Area stated that he is of the opinion that this amended ordinance is in need of further amending and will not support it in its present form. The original ordinance treated garbage burning as a health hazard, he stated. The amended ordinance takes it out of the health area and places it as a Fire District problem. "I feel that the proper place for this matter is to classify it as a nuisance and to relegate it to Zoning, where it can be administered on a permissive basis by those areas which wish it."

Willis said that he also feels that the definition of "garbage" should be changed. He said that he thinks of garbage as household wastes, subject to decomposition. The present ordinance classifies everything, from paper to plastic, metal and wood as garbage.

"I have had more people contact me on this ordinance than on any other matter that has come up before the Assembly," Willis said. "I hope that some of you people will come down to the hearing and make your views and suggestions known. This is the last opportunity we will have to be heard on the subject."

BIRCHWOOD KIDS ENJOY NEW PLAYGROUND

BIRCHWOOD: The Birchwood Elementary School PTA installed the first two pieces of playground which they had purchased for the school last week.

"Needless to say, the children were overjoyed!" stated Mrs. Dee Steeby, PTA President.

She pointed out the Bunker Hill Climber, which appeals mostly to the younger children and the Jamison Swing Rings, which gives the older children a thrill or two.

Mrs. Steeby explained that this is the first step in equipping the playground of the newest school in the Greater Chugiak Area.

The funds ($390) were donated by the Chugiak Elementary PTA, the Eagle River Elementary PTA and the proceeds from the spring Dime-A-Dish dinner, which the Birchwood PTA had sponsored.

She concluded by saying that Birchwood Area parents want to thank everyone for all their help, and to encourage everyone to attend the next Dime-A-Dish to be held sometime in November.

Tell it to Martha

By: Martha Council

Dear Martha,

Last week our little boy came home from school with his lip bleeding and his shirt torn. He claimed that one of his playmates had beat him up. This boy is the same age as our son, but is bigger and stronger.

I asked my husband to go over and talk to the boy's parents, they are neighbors and the kids have been playing together for years. Do you know what he said to me? "I'm not going to get involved in any kid's quarrel. Let him fight his own battles."

Martha, that's what's wrong in the world today. People refusing to get involved. I can understand it when it is a stranger, but what kind of a father turns his back on his own son.

I feel it is his place to speak up, but if you say the word, I will go over and talk to the boy's parents myself. They are friends of ours, and I am sure they will take it kindly.

Sincerely,

His Mother

Dear Mother,

I will say the word, I will say two words. "Butt out!" If these kids have been playing together for years, the chances are they have been fighting together for as many years. Your husband is right, let the kids fight their own battles.

These friends may not take it as kindly as you think (after all did you see what their son looked like after that fight?) You and these people may not be speaking together long after the kids have made up and forgotten the whole thing.

Sincerely,

Martha Council

DIME-A-DISH SUCCESS STORY

CHUGIAK: A total of $400 was raised at a Dime A Dish Dinner held at Chugiak High School last week for the benefit of Mrs. Patricia Cahill and her son Bill.

Both the Cahills are still in Providence Hospital where they are slowly recovering from serious injuries received in an automobile accident last month.

In addition to the dinner, a money tree had been placed at the school, and many donations had been planned on that. All of the cash was attached to the tree, and it was presented to the Cahills last Friday night by representatives of the Chugiak High Student Council, who sponsored the dinner. Also presented to the Cahills was a guest book which had been placed at the school to be signed by friends and well wishers.

Over 400 people were served, and with the exception of the milk all food was donated, including six gallons of ice cream by Carr's Food Center.

The Student Council has asked that their thanks be expressed to all those who donated food and attended the dinner.

WSCS HAVE MEETING AND LUNCHEON

OLD CHUGIAK: Nine members of the WSCS of the United Methodist Church of Chugliak met at the church for lunch and a short business meeting recently.

President, Eleanore Brion
 conducted the business meeting, during which it was decided that the WSCS would contribute $30 to the Anchorage Welcome Center to buy coffee.

It was also decided to postpone the monthly meeting from October 17, at 8pm to October 24th at the church.

The reason for the postponement is to avoid conflict with a program at the First Methodist Church in Anchorage at which time Robert Short author of the book "Gospel according to Peanuts" will be speaking.

All members and their families are urged to go in and hear Mr. Short speak.

A short program was conducted by Barbara Shaffer, which included a preview of the Society's study of Southeast Asia, plus a short film strip on that subject.

A very promising winter
 study program is being planned to be held after each month's non luncheon. These sessions are held in the homes of the various members.

ALTAR SOCIETY TO EXERCISE

FIRE LAKE: The regular monthly meeting of St. Andrew's Altar Society will be held on Wednesday, October 16th at the Monestary of the Precious Blood in Fire Lake.

The meeting will begin at 7:30pm, and all ladies are reminded that an exercise session is planned after the meeting, so they should plan
 to wear proper attire.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

OPEN LETTER TO: The Administration, Faculty, Students and Patrons of Chugiak High School and to all my friends and neighbors:

On Friday, October 4, representatives of Chugiak High School and the communities presented me with a gift --
 a gift of money, yes, and more
 -- a gift of the good wishes and hard work of the school community, tangible evidence of the warmth and spirit of Chug-iak High.

There are times in our lives
 that are so charged with meaning and feeling that words are futile. So, at a time when I would most like to express myself, I find that I cannot. I can only lie here and feel the tears of gratitude
 well up.

The four years I've spent at Chugiak High have been four of the happiest years of my life. They have been years of work, of learning, and of growing. And now they are climaxed with such an act of generosity that I am overwhelmed. I can only say,
 "Thank you...."

Sincerely yours,

Pat Cahill

TIPS FOR MILADY

Keep several snap-type clothespins in a kitchen drawer to clip onto opened bags of potato chips and other snacks. This keeps the bag tops secured after once opened.

For soft, stretchable ties to support plants, cut nylonhose into 1" strips, crosswise. These may be dipped in green food color if you wish to hide them.

OLDER PEOPLE ENJOY LEARNING HOBBIES

OLD CHUGIAK: On Thursday, October 3rd, a meeting of some of the ladies from the Older Person's Action Group (OPAG) met at the home of Community Aide Pat Sherman in Old Chugiak.

The purpose of the meeting was to enable people who are fifty five years or older to get acquainted, share ideas and hobbies.

Mrs. Elinor Brion supplied materials, and demonstrated the very attractive Swedish cross stitch needle work.

The local Carr's store donated the cookies which were served at refreshment time.

This new program is offered free to all residents of this and other areas. A get-together for the men in the age group mentioned is planned for the near future.

Any persons interested in participating in this group, may get additional information by contacting either of the two local Community Aides for OPAG; Peg Ticsington or Pat Sherman. Mrs. Sherman is manning a temporary office at her home and may be reached any day from 8:30am to 12:30 pm. Her phone number is 688-2210.
