CHUGIAK: Chugiak High's hopes for a successful basketball season received a staggering blow last Saturday night with the injury of their 6 foot seven inch Center Jim Kohring.

Kohring apparently suffered a dislocated finger during the last minutes of the second quarter in the game against East Anchorage. Chugiak basketball coach

Don Sanders said that Kohring was attempting to pass the ball between two East players when he appeared to have caught his finger on one o the other boy's jerseys and bent it back. Kohring was rushed to the hospital where Sanders said, minor surgery was required to correct the dislocation. The coach feared that it would be at least six weeks before Kohring would be able to play again, Sanders said that he is considering Vince Coan and Ken Trotter to replace Kohring as Center while the latter is out of the game.

This weekend the Mustangs play the Seard Seahawks. The Friday game to be played in Seward and the Saturday ngiht game here in Chugiak.
