

LOCAL LIBRARIES TO MERGE

BEACH BUNNIES BASK ON THE SAND AT THE NEW MIRROR LAKE SWIMMING AREA, WHILE BOLDER ONES ENJOY DIVING OFF THE FLOAT.

CHUGIAK: The Chugliak and Eagle River Branches of the Anchorage Library will be merging into a single unit to be housed at one location, according to Polly Kallenberg, Chugliak Librarian.

The combining of the facilities will take place by September 1st, and will be located at the Eagle River Shopping Center in the space formerly occupied by the Eagle River Post Office.

Mrs. Kallenberg said that the plan to consolidate had not been made hastily; but was based upon the increased use of the libraries as sources of reference material by High School students. This increase was particularly noted at the Eagle River Branch.

Lack of space and funds has limited the development of this section. By combining the libraries and renting suitable quarters, space will be available for study tables and almost double the reference material will be available at one place, Mrs. Kallenberg said.

She also stated that most of the users of the Chugliak branch have said that it will be just as convenient to pick up their books at the shopping center.

The hours observed by the Chugliak branch (11am to 7pm on Wednesdays) will be continued at the new location, and Mrs. Kallenberg will be at the Library during these hours. The Sunday hours will be discontinued, since there has not been much use of the Library on that day. The same Library cards will be honored.

Both local branches were started in 1965 under a Federal grant as experimental stations to determine if libraries were needed in this area.

The Eagle River branch near the Shopping Center showed a large circulation from the beginning which increased even more then it was moved into the Shopping Center building.

The Chugliak branch started more slowly, but showed a satisfactory circulation by the end of the first year. It was invaluable at the time when the elementary school library was being renovated and their supply of books limited. Also the Chugliak Library arranged for books to be supplied the new Birchwood Elementary School until that library was in full operation.

Mrs. Kallenberg concluded by stating that she hoped that the local library will develop

Hundreds have been flocking to the new sandy beach to enjoy the unusually warm and sunny weather which heralded the opening of the new park.

The Mirror Lake Picnic Wayside, as it is called was completed on August 1st at a total cost of approximately $50,000; $40,00 of which was from Federal funds, and $10,000 in matching State monies.

The facility includes a sand beach, with a swimming area separated from the rest of the lake by a boundary consisting of bright yellow and white floats. There is a float complete with diving board, dressing rooms and toilets.

An ample parking area has been provided, and picnickers will find a well with pump, picnic tables and barbecue units in a nearby wooded area, and a covered picnic shelter for group picnics. Boating enthusiasts will find a boat

Ted Smith, of the Department of Parks and Recreation of the State Division of Lands said that a formal Dedication and ribbon cutting ceremony has been scheduled for Saturday, August 31st. Special guests at this event will be Commissioner Kelly, and possibly a representative of the Bureau of Outdoor Recreation from Washington D.C. Local Borough dignitaries will be invited to participate. The Chuglak Lions Club, who were in a part instrumental in getting this area developed into a public park will serve refreshments at the ceremony.

Also, when the ice is on the lake, piles will be driven to construct a dock at the boat launching area.

FULL YEAR FOR FIRE COMPANY

EAGLE RIVER: It has been quite a year for the Eagle
River Volunteer Fire Company according to Frank Austin, Secretary-Treasurer
of that organization.

The sub-station at Far North Service Station was activated this spring and now after many years the main Fire Hall on Cornado has just received a new concrete floor, and the walls will be paneled shortly.

The new concrete floor and
the paneling are the end result of a real community effort, Austin stated. The Eagle River Lioness Club raised
the money for these projects;
Tuck Construction Company
graded and prepared the floor.
Wallace Construction provided the concrete at a rock bottom price and United Building Supply helped with miscellaneous items. The work was done by the men of the Company with the Eagle River Inn
providing welcome refreshments fro the long breaks between short work periods.

Fire Chief Tom Take remarked that besides improving the overall appearance of the station, the new floor
should help reduce the heating cost.

Chief Take would like to thank all of the men who helped on the Tuesday and Wednesday night work parties;
and Bob Knox, Les Green-
street, Frank Austin and Bill Glatke who were able to make the Saturday morning work
party.

TIPS FOR MILADY

Making jam or jelly? Here are a few tips to make this messy job a little easier.

Why bother with melting paraffin in a separate pan? Just place a few shavings of the wax on the surface of the hot jelly or jam in the jar. Screw the lid on and the heat will melt the wax sealing your preserves perfectly.

Also save those worn out nylon stockings. A clean nylon makes an excellent bag for straining the juice when making jelly.

CYCLIST HURT IN ACCIDENT

EAGLE RIVER: An Anchorage cyclist was seriously injured in an accident which took place on August 1st, on the Glenn Highway at Cornado Road at 10:30pm.
