FIRE GUTTED RESIDENCE AT MILE 22 IS A GRIM REMINDER OF THE TRAGIC DEATH OF LOCAL WOMAN.

PETERS CREEK: Funeral services were held on Tuesday, June 3rd at 11:00am at Evergreen Memorial Chapel for Mrs. Robert (Ruth) Nelson, who died last week in the fire which gutted her frame house at mile 22 Glenn Highway.

The Chugiak Volunteer Fire Company responded to the call at 12:20am last Thursday, and found the house completely involved. Mrs. Nelson's body was discovered in the living room.

According to a spokesman for the Fire Company, she had apparently been trying to get out of the house when she collapsed.

The State Fire Marshall's office stated that the probable cause of the fire was from a lighted cigarette. The fire appeared to have started at the living room coach where they guessed that Mrs. Nelson had fallen asleep. Her bed was still made up and had not been slept in. There was no one else in the house at the time. Her husband, who is in construction had been working near Kenai at the time of the fire.

Two small dogs that had been locked in the garage were released unharmed by the firemen.

The firemen were able to bring the fire under control, and the house is still standing, although the living room and garage are badly gutted. The house was covered by insurance.

Mrs. Nelson was born on June 29th, 1918. She is survived by her husband and a daughter, Mrs. Donna Fuller of Kansas City Kansas.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Joseph E. Shirley of St. Andrew's Catholic Church in Eagle River. Active pallbearers are, Clarence Halverson, Don Merrell, Norman McGuire, Roy Wegger, Robert Hall and George Smith. Honorary pallbearers were, Ernie Hankins, George Bockman, John Stockhausen, William Hoehler, C.D. Woodham and Gilbert Rosenberg.

Burial was at the Anchorage City Cemetary.

The fire is still under investigation according to Jerry Krause, State Fire Marshall.

EXPLOITATION PROTESTED

JUNEAU - Rep. Richard I. Eliason, R-Sitka, has wired Gov. Keith H. Miller strongly protesting the exploitation of the Sitka spring spawning area.

The continuing harvest for the purpose of exportation will eliminate completely this vitally needed resource, he said.

There has been, for many years, a critical shortage of this basic food of the sea life and decimating the spawning herring will have a very real detrimental effect on the sport and commercial fishing in the Sitka area, he said.

In his telegram, Eliason specifically protested the exporting of 500 tons of herring to Japan, where the eggs are to be processed. He said the Sitka area has not had a spawn fishery for the last two years and the Craig area was closed this spring due to the lack of herring spawn.

The exploiters, he said, are harvesting the whole herring, which will deplete this resource in a very short time.

DON'T BLAME YOUR PAPER BOY

Your Courier was delivered a day late last week, don't blame your paper boy or girl!

We experienced a breakdown of the press last Wednesday, and it was late in the evening before the Courier hit the stands. We were able to get the Courier to the newspaper racks, but it was too late to have it delivered on some of the routes.

It looked bad for a while, but a temporary repair made it possible to keep our record of never having missed the Wednesday deadline unbroken (although it may have been slightly bent).

A new part has been ordered from the states, and we are keeping our fingers crossed that the repair holds and that this issue of the Courier comes out on time.

COURIER OFFERS FREE TEEN ADS AGAIN

With the start of the school vacation, the Knik Arm Courier is once again offering to publish free classified ads for teen-agers who are seeking summer employment.

These ads must be submitted in writing, and are limited to three lines. The age of the teen-ager must appear in the ad. The ad will be printed on two successive editions.

There are many young people in this community who are eager to work, and the Courier sincerely hopes that the local

BANKERS LOSE ONE - WIN ONE

CHUGIAK: On May 28th, the local Babe Ruth team, First National Bank of Anchorage, Eagle River Branch, lost their first game to Braund Inc. at Lake Otis Field.

The game was protested by the Banker's Manager in the 3rd inning. If the protest is granted, the game will be re-played at a later date. At the time of the protest the score was 3-3. The game was tied through the 5th inning with Zimmerman pitching. The final score was 5-4 with McAllister taking the loss for the Bankers, and Aldrighetti the win for Braund. The five Banker hits were divided among Eullock, Stratton, Zimmerman, Weger and Roberts.

On May 29th, the Chugiak Bankers team chalked up another win. Their best game of the season was played topping Hensley Trailer Sales 10-1. Stratton was the winning pitcher for the Bankers and Christensen took the loss for Hensley.

The first inning seemed to set the pace with Watkins leading off with a hit on the first pitch thrown. Goedel was next on base having been hit with a pitched ball. Stratton's sacrifice moved the runners into scoring position. Armstrong's long fly to left scored Watkins and moved Goedel to 3rd. Zimmerman's single drove in Goedel. Weger followed with a sharp single to left scoring Zimmerman. This gave the Bankers a 3 point lead.

The second inning saw 3 more runs scored. Best led off with a clean single to right followed by Goedel's walk. Armstrong doubled scoring when Weger, the Banker shortstop, reached safely due to an error on Hensley 3rd baseman.

The next two innings were scoreless. The 5th inning saw two runs scored when Stratton, Martin and Watkins drew walks and Goedel rapped a double to center field scoring Stewart and Martin. The Bankers scored their final two runs in their half of the 6th inning when Armstrong led off with a walk, Roberts singled to left and Stewart drew a walk. Martin laid down a bunt with bases loaded and two Banker runs crossed the plate. Martin reached 2nd safely on an error.

Hensley's only score came in the 5th inning when they took advantage of a single, a walk and two more singles.

Banker hits were gathered by Watkins, Zimmerman, Roberts, Weger, Best and McAllister (singles) and Armstrong and Goedel (doubles).

The Bankers schedule for this week is as follows: June 5th, Thursday, Bankers vs. Melody Traller at 9th and B at 6:30pm. June 7th, Saturday, Bankers vs. C.R. Lewis at Mulcahy at 7:30pm.

VANDALS DAMAGE MIRROR LAKE WAYSIDE

PETERS CREEK: Vandals hit the Mirror Lake Picnic Wayside on Monday night, May 26th, causing an estimated $500 damage and putting the water well out of commission.

The Wayside was cleaned up and opened for Memorial Day weekend, but users will have to provide their own drinking water.

There are no funds available until after July 1st to repair the water pump and piping, said Ted Smith, parks and recreation chief for the Alaska Division of Lands.

Smith said the vandalism apparently happened late on Monday night, the 26th, and was discovered Tuesday morning by maintenance men. In addition to the water well damage, the entrance and traffic signs were torn up and holes chopped in some flotation barrels marking off the swimming area.

"They built a big bonfire in the sandy beach area, and I couldn't even guess at the number of broken beer bottles in the picnic shelter," Smith said.

This is the first episode of major vandalism at the popular picnic, swimming and boating wayside.

Tell it to Martha

By: Martha Council

Dear Martha,

I don't have a problem, but my friend does. She has it in her head that she should only wear one special piece of jewelry for accessory with each outfit.

She buys a handbag or a necklace to wear with this particular dress, she would never dream of switching around.

I have tried to tell her that she would have a much more interesting wardrobe if she would just try a little variety.

But, no, she won't listen to me. As sure as the sun sets you can be sure that if she is wearing the black silk, she will have on the pearls, or if she has on the brown suit, she will be carrying her alligator bag.

What do you think of this?

Gives good advice

Dear gives etc.

I disagree with the first sentence of your letter. You are the one with the problem not your friend.

Whatever makes you so concerned over her taste in dress that you feel that you must write to an advice column?

You either have so little of interest in your own life that you must concern yourself with the details of others, or you are the kind of person who can't stand to have your advice rejected, even if it is unasked for.

Try to find something constructive to devote your energy toward, and keep your "good advice" for those who ask for it.

Sincerely,

Martha Council

According to the Alaska State Troopers, Thelma Marie Giles, of Birchwood lost control of her 1963 Dodge when it went to far onto the shoulder of the road upon rounding a curve. Mrs. Giles apparently over corrected, and slid broadside into an oncoming car, a 1964 Plymouth driven by Marian Layland, also of Birchwood.

Damage to the Dodge was estimated at $550. The Plymouth was damaged an estimated $300.

State Troopers cited Mrs. Giles for negligent driving.

DON'T LET KIDS MAKE FAKE FIRE CALLS!

CHUGIAK: The Chugiak Volunteer Fire Company has reported that apparently some youngster has taken to amusing himself by dialing the emergency Fire number and then hanging up. There were no less than thirty such false alarm calls on Tuesday.

Parents are asked to please ask their children not to dial the fire number unless there is a genuine emergency. This not only can tie up the line in the event of a genuine emergency, but is unnecessarily harassing to the volunteers who serve without pay.

U OF A TO HOLD MUSIC CAMP

COLLEGE — The sixth annual Summer Music Camp of the University of Alaska will be held from July 7 through Aug. 1 on campus.

The four-week camp is expected to attract students from all parts of the state as it has in the past, according to Charles Davis, head of the music department and camp co-ordinator. In 1968 the camp enrolled more students from Southcentral and Southeastern Alaska than ever before.

Applications have been received from students in various states from California to New York. Many out of state students have attended past music camps.

Students who attend the camp receive instruction from college faculty and experience what life on a college campus is like. Davis said the camp is planned for a 24-day period so that students may experience a real musical growth and development.

Tuition for the camp is $50, which includes musical and recreational activities and individual lessons. Dormitory rooms may be reserved for those students who live out of the area for $78.25. Meals can be purchased individually or by meal ticket. Further information is available by writing to Davis at College.

Those who attend will be able to participate in band, chorus, orchestra, opera workshop and will also be able to study music theory and history. There will be daily recreation periods and evening programs.

Special activities will include faculty - student recital, participation in Fairbanks' Golden Days Parade, a camp out at Mt. McKinley Park, an opera workshop production, hikes, and dances.

"The success of the program has been demonstrated in the number of students chosen for All-State Honor Choir and Honor Band who have attended the Music Camp," Davis said.

LITTLE LEAGUE RAINED OUT ON OPENER

CHUGIAK: The opening of the Little League season in the Greater Chugiak Area was marred last Monday night when one of the games was rained out in the second inning.

The game between the Eagle River Lions and Peters Creek Fuel, which was being played at the Eagle River field will have to be re-scheduled, according to Herb Goedel, Knik League President.

The rainstorm must have been a local shower, however, as sunny skies prevailed up the road at the Chugiak diamond, and the El Patio team was able to win their first game against Eagle River Shopping Center 25-13.

Tonight, Wednesday, June 4, the Eagle River Lions will meet the Eagle River Shopping Center at Chugiak; while Peters Creek Fuel will play El Patio at Eagle River.

On Friday, June 6th, the Eagle River Shopping Center will play Peters Creek Fuel at Chugiak, and the Eagle River Lions will play El Patio at Eagle River.

Monday, June 9th, will see the E.R. Lions vs Peters Creek Fuel at Chugiak; while at Eagle River, El Patio will take on E.R. Shopping Center.

Work on the ball diamond at the Chugiak Carnival grounds did not progress much over the Memorial day weekend, however, Goedel said that a workparty has been scheduled for next Saturday, and he hopes that posts for the dugouts will be set at this time.

BURNING BAN EXTENDED

The public order prohibiting burning which went into effect on May 23 has been supplemented to expand the affected area.

Record breaking high temperatures last weekend and one of the hottest, driest spring seasons in Alaska's history has resulted in severe fire danger throughout most of the state. Extreme critical conditions continue to build up in the Interior, Western and Southcentral Alaska regions.

A spokesman for the Bureau of Land Management has informed the State Forester that this is a record early fire season, the worst since 1957 and possibly the worst in over twenty years. This could be one of the worst fire seasons in the history of the state.

Since the first order went into effect last Friday, there have been 15 new fires on state and private land and 16,000 additional acres burned, said acting state forester L.A. Dutton. BLM forces are taxed to the limit statewide. Firefighters are being ordered up from villages all over Alaska, Dutton added.

The new supplemental order will blanket the original order and increase the affected area by adding all lands within Game Management Units, 7, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16 and 20, Dutton said. The new order became effective this morning at 12:01 a.m.

The order prohibits until further notice all open and uncontrolled fires such as berm, slash, debris, rubbish, grass and cropland fires. Campfires are allowed within public campgrounds within fireplaces.

Closed are most of the Kenai Peninsula, the Susitna River, the Matanuska River and the Copper River valleys and the area from the Alaska Range North to the Yukon River and from the headwaters of the Kuskokwim East of the Alaska-Yukon border.

Although this order closes the most heavily populated areas to burning, conditions are extremely critical almost statewide.

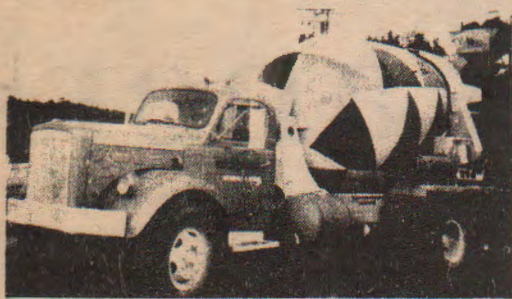

In announcing the new order Division of Lands director F. J. Keenan said his office was coordinating the closure proceedings with federal agencies. The Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife is closing the Kenai National Moose Range. The Forest Service is closing portions of the Chugach National Forest.

John Raynor, fire staff officer for the Chugach National Forest, told the Division of Lands that the Forest Service Order will contain the same restrictions as the state's order and will cover National Forest lands within Game Management Units 7 and 14.

The new order increasing the area on which open fires are prohibited was signed by F. J. Keenan, state lands director, as agent for Thomas E. Kelly, commissioner of natural resources.

OPAG NEWS

BY: Pat Sherman, Community Aid for OPAG

The Wig Party held May 28th turned out to be a very pleasant get together for the thirteen ladies who attended.

There were many laughs over the drastic changes a wig can make in a person's appearance when it is the wrong shade or style. We learned the origin of wig hair, how it is blended, dyed and made into hair pieces.

The old saying, "A woman's hair is her crowning glory", certainly was demonstrated at the party.

Two hairpieces were given away. Dora Monroe, our hostess received one, and Dian Sherman won another as a door prize.

On Friday the bus took us to Anchorage for the tree planting ceremony sponsored by the Pioneers of Alaska, Igloo No. 15, Anchorage Chapter, American Association of Retired Persons and Older Persons Action Group.

Since the air was very nippy the ceremonies were held indoors, then outdoors for the tree planting.

Rev. John Underwood, a local OPAG member, opened the ceremonies with a prayer.

The 752 Command Band USAF, led by Capt. Ronald Carl played for the ceremony. They brought back memories of years gone when they played two numbers especially for the older generation.

Chancy Croft, who was master of ceremonies, introduced those who took part in the program.

Frank Brink gave wonderful readings of poems by Walt Whitman and a sampling of his own, very moving writings.

Mr. Stanter also gave an excellent talk on Alaskan trail blazers, and the part they play in our every day life, and the lives of future generations.

Each person had the opportunity to help with the tree planting. Our bus driver, Mr. Cummings, quipped, "Peg Tissington is the best dressed ditch digger that I have ever seen."

On June 11th, at 6:30PM AARP is having a Pot Luck dinner at 612 F. Street. There will be a $1.00 donation. Everyone is invited to bring their favorite dish, and enjoy the get together for older persons.

Our director, Mr. Eaton, has just returned from a trip to Juneau. We hope that the results of this trip are favorable, as they will have a direct bearing on funds for our Center.

A reminder of scheduled events: Tuesday, Trip to Anchorage for doctor appointments, drugs and necessary shopping if time allows. Thursday, Grocery shopping in Eagle River, and ladies sewing classes at the Eagle River Center from 10:00am to 2:00pm. Friday, Ladies hair-do day.

For information or assistance, call Pat Sherman, 688-2210 or Peg Tissington 689-2518.

INMATES TELL IT LIKE IT IS

Inmates of the Adult Conservation Camp near Palmer are "telling it like it is."

They are speaking to youth and adult groups in the community in a new program coordinated by the Alaska Office of Vocational Rehabilitation, which operates a vocational program with public offenders under an agreement with the Division of Corrections.

Paul Stern, counselor-coordinator for the public offender project, said the program was prompted by several inmates who asked for the opportunity to speak about prison life and some of the things which have led to it.

Inmates are speaking on their specialties — narcotics, crime and alcoholism, Stern said. All of the speakers have long histories of arrests and incarcerations, both in state jails and federal prisons. So far, they have spoken to service clubs, Parent - Teacher Association units and student groups.

Neither Stern's office nor the Adult Camp staff claim the speakers are completely reformed. But they do believe that the men are not happy with themselves and have "a sincere desire to do what they can to see that others do not follow in their footsteps."
