NEW MAP SHOWS REVISED PARK BOUNDARIES

2 FROM HERE TO TRY

FOR MTA BOARD

PALMER: Two local residents were among the seven nominees named by the Matanuska Telephone Association nominating committee to fill board of director's positions presently being held by Paul Huppert of the Butte, and Helmi Blank, of Big Lake.

The two local nominees, named at the June 7th meeting were Jerry O'Conner, and Robert Thomas, both of Eagle River.

Other nominees named were, Paul Huppert, (incumbent) of the Butte, Earnest Deland, of Willow, S. S. Dusharme, of Talkeetna, J. Marion Pendergrass of Palmer, and J.C. Wright, of Wasilla.

The nominating committee made two suggestions to be considered by the Association's Board of Directors in

MISS ALASKA TO RIDE IN CHUGIAK PARADE

CHUGIAK: Linda Ann Hogue, of Kodiak, Miss Alaska of 1972 will be the star attraction of the second annual 4th of July Parade to be held in Chugiak.

Miss Hogue will be riding in a car which will be one of the 35 units which have been entered in the parade to date.

Betty Gaston, parade chairman, stated that interest in the parade this year is excellent, with many Anchorage organizations having entered. Entries to date include such

ANCHORAGE: A new map, showing the revised boundaries of the Chugach State Park was unveiled today by the State Division of Parks.

The revision was the result of pressure brought to bear by the CPPP, (Citizens for the Preservation of Private Property) an organization of local homesteaders who own property located within the original park boundaries.

Approximately 15,343 acres of land are now outside the limits of the park.

Public hearings on the new boundaries have been scheduled for June 29th at 8pm in the Z.J. Loussac Library in Anchorage, with local hearings to be scheduled in Eagle River and in Girdwood at a later date.

Still scheduled is a hearing tonight (June 14th) at Grant Hall, AMU at 8pm. This hearing concerns the proposed regulations which would have affected private property considered by the Association's Board of Directors in the future.

The first was that more notice be given members of the nominating committee before the meeting. Members of the committee felt that more time was needed to seek out competent and willing candidates for the board of directors.

The second suggestion was that a more equitable means of board representation be investigated. Several members of the nominating committee did comment that the committee itself was very representative of the Association's various regions.

The filling of the two expiring board member's positions will take place on Friday, August 4th in Palmer at the Association's Annual Meeting.

Association officials asked that members be reminded that nominations may be made by petition. The petitions must have at least fifteen (15) members signatures and be completed by July 10.

If the petitions are received by the Association before July 20, the nominee's names will appear on the official ballot. If received after July 20, the nominations will be treated as nominations from the floor.

Members of the nominating Committee in attendance were: Donna France, Palmer; Benny Coffey, Wasilla; Leona Spencer, Big Lake; Sam Sumrall, Eagle River; John Pugh, Chugiak; Judy Sandvik, Butte; Dorothy Jones, Talkeetna; Robert Burner, Willow, and Richard Sund, Peters Creek.

Absent were, Joyce Leppanen, Sutton and Joe Usibelli, Fealy.

****

Entries to date include such local groups as the Frontier Riders Saddle Club, the Chugiak Homemakers Club, the Para Angels Sport Parachute Club, the Chugiak Volunteer Fire Company and the Eklutna Village Council.

Chugiak Aviation, of Birchwood is one of the commercial entries.

Two Anchorage radio stations, KYAK and KENI are entering floats. The latter will feature a "Teen Age Idol" as their attraction.

At least two marching bands have been promised.

The parade will start at 1pm on Tuesday, July 4th at the Chugiak Fire Hall at mile 18 1/2 on the Old Glenn Highway and proceed from there to the Chugiak Carnival grounds at Mile 21.

There are tentative plans for a pot-luck picnic to follow at the Carnival Grounds if a local organization can be found who will sponsor it.

Mrs. Gaston stated that she is still accepting entries in the parade. No entry fee will be charged. Five trophies will be offered for the best entries.

Any business or organization wishing to enter a float or unit in the parade may call Mrs. Gaston at 688-2625.

COMMUNITY CENTER STALLED BY FUNDING PROBLEM

EAGLE RIVER: Negotiation for the purchase of the Broadwater Building in Eagle River by the Borough ground to a halt when it was discovered that no bank in the Anchorage Area would lend the funds necessary to complete the transaction.

The Borough Assembly had, earlier in the year, approved the purchase of the Broadwater Building to be converted into a community center for this area.

The restrictive terms of the ordinance, however, limited the method of financing the project to a loan from an Alaskan lending institution, with the money to be repaid over a ten year period from revenue received from rentals of office space in the building.

Ed Willis, local Assemblyman, said that the refusal of any banks to make the loan was totally unexpected.

The estimated gross rent from organizations which would be using the building is over $24,000 per year, enough to repay the $180,000 which the Borough needed to purchase the building and make the necessary repairs and alterations, plus interest.

Willis stated that one slim chance for a loan still was in the offing. They had not yet heard from the Alaska National Bank, a Fairbanks based institution.

The original ordinance had called for the project to be financed by the Borough Land Trust Fund. This was blocked by Assemblyman from the City of Anchorage, who substituted the present ordinance.

Many meetings have been held in past weeks between the Borough Administration, Ed Willis and Bob Broadwater, owner of the building trying to find a way out of the difficulties.

Broadwater had given the Borough a June 5th deadline to complete the transaction. He has since extended this, Willis said.

A spokesman for the Borough Administration pointed out that Broadwater has been waiting since early in January for the Borough to complete the transaction. That he is in need of the money from the sale of the building to finance his plastics manufacturing plant in Palmer, and that it would be unfair and unrealistic to expect him to wait indefinitely.

Willis commented that the Community Center ordinance had been based entirely on the purchase of the Broadwater Building, and if that ceases affected private property owners had the park boundary not been changed.

to be available, it will be a whole new ballgame. Another building in the area would have to be located, and if none was available, then acreage on which to construct one would have to be purchased.

Willis mentioned an alternate possibility which would not rule out the Broadwater Building. This would be a lease-purchase method, such as the Borough has utilized in the past for the location of agencies such as libraries.

This would, however have to go back to the Assembly for approval.

Agencies which are waiting to move into the Community Center are, the Eagle River Volunteer Fire Company, the Borough Health Department, Borough Sewer Maintenance offices, Department of Environmental Quality, Animal Control and GOAL. The Owl Cafe, which is presently located in the building would continue to lease space.

SR. CENTER & OPAG NEW

BY: Daisy Pele, president

I was very sorry to hear that one of our Board members was taken to Providence Hospital with pneumonia. Her name is Buleah Mackey. They have both had a very trying time with illness all winter. Our prayers are with you for a speedy recovery.

Our trip to Anchorage was a very happy one, and the Cub Scouts donated potted flowers for the table. Trudy Eaton won the flowers from table one and donated them to the Chugiak Center. I will put them in the flower box today.

They had a big Pot Luck dinner in Anchorage. Mr. Frank Eaton and Mrs. L. Showers told us all about their trip abroad and it was very interesting.

They must have had an exciting time while they were gone. As yet they have not started on our septic. We sure need it but we have not given up hope as we know people are busy this time of year and this all takes time.

Pen Lee who won the beautiful oil painting is one of Chugiak Senior Citizens. She won the painting from the new shop that opened. The Chugiak Art Gallery, and please call the Center 688-2677 or Roy Charmley 272-9317 and we will be glad to help you.

We are at the Center Monday and Friday from ten to four and hope that anyone who is 55 or over will come and visit our Center.

K.L. Babbist, Linnie Davis, Dorothy Liska, Natalie Stone. These are the ladies that were with the children when they sang for us.

 The Chugiak Art Gallery, and it is operated by Mr. and Mrs. Norris Caraway. He came into Jeannie's Shop while I was there and I told him how I was and he offered to give us a free demonstration of oil painting. We can set the date with him by calling him.

I am sure that our members will be at the Center when the date is made.

I had our kitchen stove fixed. It needed two new units
 but I did not have enough money in the bank for the Center to pay for it.

I am hoping that the Main Center in Mountain View will be able to take care of it.

Friday June the 9th, we had some children from the Baptist Church to sing for us and they sang beautifully. We hope to have them again. We also served them ice cream and cake.

Roy Char mley, our ceramics teacher donated some beautiful dishes to the Center.

Our Ceramics class will be Wednesday from nine to el-

to the Salvation Army for lunch.

Tell it to Martha

BY: MARTHA COUNCIL

Out of the Past

Dear Martha

I have a sister-in-law who is a widow. Her children are all grown, and she lives alone. When we were both younger, both of us had a weight problem, and used to share our diets and try to lose weight together.

Well, I still am a fatty, but she has managed to shed pounds since her husband passed away.

She is constantly at me trying this or that diet, and insists that if she could slim down, so can I.

The thing is, Martha, I still have three teen-agers living at home, plus a husband who eats meat and potatoes appetitely.

I am sure that if I did have to cook all that good food I could stick to a lettuce and cottage cheese diet too.

My husband says not to let her bug me, that he would rather have me the way I am than a skinny chain-smoker like his sister.

Still, I hate to listen to her insinuations that she has more will power than I have. What can I say to put her in her place?

Still Mrs. Flab

Dear Still etc.

Why bother trying to put her in any place?

You still have a husband who loves you the way you are. Would you trade place with her? Would you swap your well fed family for her slim figure and empty house? The price she has paid for being able to stay on a diet is pretty steep. Pity her, and stop worrying how to put her down.

Sincerely,

Martha Council
