

BRAY BOY FOUND DEAD OF UNKNOWN CAUSE

CHAMBER TO INVITE HIGHWAY DEPT. HEAD TO MARCH MEETING

EAGLE RIVER: The local Chamber of Commerce will invite State Highway Commissioner to the March 19th meeting of that group, it was decided at the Mouday meeting of the Chamber.

With local roads high on the list of Chamber priorities, it was felt that a representative of the Highway Department should be invited to address the Chamber and be available for local residents to address their problems.

Also a subject of Chamber concern is the series of public hearings throughout the state on the proposed ordinance which would prevent the issuance of building permits on lots less than $40,000 square feet which would have on site

Borough Planning Department, that according to the present time schedule there will be no zoning in this area until late fall or early winter of 1974 at the earliest.

Beatty also said that he knows of no plan to zone the area B-4 and would not himself recommend this.

Kallenberg assured the Chamber that there would be public hearings in this area by the Commission before the zoning recommendations were submitted to the borough assembly, and that the assembly would also hold hearings on the matter.

He added that although the Commission was not scheduling zoning this area until next years, any individual areas might petition for zoning before that time if EAGLE RIVER: The body of Charles O. Bray, age 14, who had been missing since Saturday, February 3rd, was discovered last Friday February 16th, only a short distance from his home.

According to the Alaska State Troopers, three teen age boys who were on their way to go ice fishing found the youth's body in the snow approximately fifty feet from the Old Glenn Highway at Mile 15.

The boy, who was the son of Orvale Bray of Mercy St. in the Debora Subdivision was reported last seen at his home by three companions on Saturday, February 3rd.

Although the youth was supposed to be staying with a family at Mile 18 while his father was working at Ketchikan, he and his three friends had gone to the Bray residence that night and according to the other youths had remained at the trailer home for a short time. The three reportedly then left, with the Bray youth remaining behind.

The body was discovered at approximately 11:00 am on ing permits on lots less than $40,000 square feet which would have on site water supply and sewage disposal.

It is the belief of the Chamber that this would bring to a standstill development in this area, and that the 40,000 square foot restriction is in many areas not necessary.

The Chamber feels that the Borough Department of Environmental Quality is the agency charged with the determining of whether a parcel of land can or can not support both on site water and sewer, and that this should remain their responsibility rather than set an arbitrary lot size to apply everywhere in the State.

The local hearing is set for Friday, March 9th at the Commodore Room in the Anchorage Westward Hotel.

The Chamber has appointed a committee to make the presentation at the hearing.

Members of this committee are Glenn Briggs, Jesse Wooten, Bob Fleming, to be aided by Bob Kallenberg, local member of the Borough Planning and Zoning Commission, who will supply information available at the Borough level.

The committee will report their findings on the status of local subdivisions at the March 5th meeting of the Chamber prior to the March 9th hearing.

Also of concern to the Chamber was the rumored zoning of the Eagle River shopping area as B-4 rather than B-3 as area residents had indicated they preferred. Kallenberg said that he was assured by William Beatty acting director of the next year, any individual areas might petition for zoning before that time if they wish to.

ABSENTEE BALLOT APPLICATIONS DUE MARCH 2nd

JUNEAU: Applications for absentee ballots must be postmarked no later than midnight, March 2nd, 1973, the Lieutenant Governor H. A. Boucher reminded voters today.

Any application bearing a later postmark cannot be accepted as a request for an absentee ballot for the special election, as stated in the Alaska Statutes.

The Statutes also require each applicant to sign his own request for an absentee ballot. A signed letter to the Lieutenant Governor listing the voter's Alaskan residence and the address to which he wants his ballot mailed is all that is required in the application.

The marked ballot and completed affidavit envelope must be postmarked no later than March 6, 1973, the day of the election.

CHS FLOAT IS RONDY PARADE WINNER

ANCHORAGE: The float constructed by the Pep Club members at Chugiak High won second place in the School-Church category in the Fur Rendezvous parade last Saturday.

The float, which depicted the tall tale of the Cheechako and the Iceworm Cocktail, reflected the theme of the parade which was "Tall Tales of the North."

The float featured an animated ice-worm which apparently had just emerged from a beer-mug. Students riding the float tossed bags of candy to the parade spectators.

The Pep Club has asked that their thanks be expressed to the following local merchants who contributed toward making the float a successful project: Ornamental Iron Works for the loan of a heated garage for a full week so that the students could work on the float in comfort, Eagle River Plumbing and Heating Supply for chicken wire, United Building Supply for lumber, Carr's Food Center for 10 cases of candy; Proctors

Market for napkins and plastic bags; Northern Western Store and A to Z Plumbing for chicken wire and Eagle River Pharmacy for crepe paper.

Chugik High was also represented in the parade by the band which marched in full uniform.

with the Bray youth remaining behind. The body was discovered at approximately 11:00am on the 16th. The State Troopers said that he was lying face down, and there were no visible marks of violence.

The cause of death has not been determined pending results of the autopsy, however State Troopers are inclined to believe death was the result of exposure. Although the youth's father had stated that he suspected the boy might have been using marijuana, State Troopers said that they were informed by Dr. Probst who was conducting the autopsy that there is no known way to determine if a person had been using the drug prior to death.

Although the area in which the body was found is fairly densely populated, and had been extensively searched following the time of the boy's disappearance, the Troopers did not find any evidence that the body might have been placed there at a later date.

Young Bray was born on February 6th 1959 in Bremerton Washington. He had been a resident of Alaska for 1 1/2 years, and was an eighth grade student at Chugiak Junior High.

He is survived by his father Orvale Bray of Eagle River, his mother Jeanne Bray of Bremerton Washington; paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bandini of Seattle Washington and maternal grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Russell Scott, of Bremerton Washington.

The body was shipped to

WE WANT ACTION NOW!

In last week's editorial we suggested that the time might be at hand for this area to incorporate into an official unit of government of some type.

The response from our readers has been very heartening. We have received a great number of phone calls from people who said "We agree...what can we do to get the ball rolling?"

Many of those to whom we talked appeared to favor incorporating into either a second class (or possibly even a first class) city rather than trying to separate from the present borough and form a borough of our own. It was felt that as a city the area would not be charged with supporting the area schools (a burden which they felt the community did not have the tax base to maintain.) The Greater

Anchorage Area Borough which the area would still be a part of would still retain this responsibility, along with the other areawide borough powers.

Whether this area could legally incorporate into a city under the existing municipality code was a question that we were unable to answer. However, we agreed that this is probably the best place to start.

The main thing that those we talked to were in agreement on was...."no more studies please. We want action now!"

Tell it to Martha

BY: MARTHA COUNCIL

Dear Martha,
My husband and I have been discussing this matter and we need to know if what we are planning is legal.

We are expecting a child in a few months. We are believers in planned parenthood, and this is the only baby we plan on having.

My husband wants the baby to be named after him and called junior whether it is a boy or a girl. Now this won't saddle the baby with an unusual name if she is a girl as my husband's name is one of those that is used by both men and women (i.e. Leslie, Francis, Dale etc.)

What we are wondering is can we legally call a girl Junior if she is named after her father?

Only one for us please,

Dear Only one etc.

You can legally name your child anything you want. As to whether the designation of Junior after the name of a girl when she is named for her father, I could find nothing that indicates whether this is legal or not. It is possible that the matter has never come up before.

I am sure that if you call your daughter Leslie Jones Junior, it might cause a few problems for her teachers at school until they realize that she is a girl, but other than that I can't imagine it being a handicap in any other way.

Sincerely,
Martha Council

CHS STUDENT NOMINATED FOR WEST POINT

WASHINGTON D.C.: A Chugiak High Senior was one of ten candidates nominated for the U.S. Military Academy at West Point by U.S. Senator Ted Stevens.

The student is Louis J. Zib Junlor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. Zib, Sr., of Eagle River.

The Alaskan to fill the vacancy is selected on the basis of a "whole man" approach, by the Boards of the Academies.

Criteria considered by the Boards consists of physical condition, grades in high school, College Board test scores and extracurricular activities.

When the competitive system is used, there is a chance of more Alaskans being appointed, according to a spokesman for Senator Stevens office.

TAXPAYERS ARE CONFUSED BY INCOME TAX FORM

OGDEN UTAH: Officials at the Internal Revenue Service in Ogden, Utah note that form 4875 (Presidential Election Campaign Fund Statement) has caused a certain degree of confusion to some taxpayers.

The special form was included in all Form 1040A tax packages that were mailed to taxpayers earlier this year.

Officials noted that line 20 of the taxpayer's Form 1040 (or line 21 of Form 1040A) must indicate a tax liability of $1.00 or more before he

TIPS FOR MILADY

If you enjoy making those new mix cakes that require no bowl, but are mixed right in the baking pan...then you will welcome this method of frosting them, which also requires no bowl.

Arrange 24 large chocolate mints on the top of an eight inch cake immediately after removing from the oven.

Return to oven for two minutes, or until candy melts. Leave as is, or spread with knife before it cools.

may contribute to the fund.

A husband and wife filing jointly may contribute $2,000 if both choose to participate.

Form 4875 is designated so that the taxpayer may contribute to a particular political party's fund or to a nonpartisan general account.
